

Faculty Position Vacancy

NURSING INSTRUCTORS

SCHOOL OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

JOB POSTING Y0-025

COMPETITION OPEN UNTIL FILLED

4 term Nursing Faculty positions commencing August 30, 2010 up to and including December 17, 2010. Full- and part-time positions are available.

Our Nursing Faculty combines clinical expertise and a passion for teaching into rich and rewarding careers. These professionals, who work in the classroom, lab and clinical setting, are responsible for preparing and mentoring current and future generations of nurses. Instructors are critical players in assuring quality educational experiences that prepare the nursing workforce for diverse, ever-changing healthcare environments. They are the leaders who document the outcomes of educational programs and guide students through the learning process.

Qualifications:

- current registration with the C.R.N.B.C.
- a minimum of a Bachelor's Degree specializing in Nursing is required; a Master's Degree in Nursing or a related discipline preferred
- recent clinical experience working in a variety of settings
- experience teaching adults, preferably in a college setting
- experience with curriculum development
- strong communication skills and collaborative approach to problem solving
- commitment to the scholarship of teaching and a willingness to participate actively in a learning-centred College environment while promoting excellence in nursing practice
- ability and desire to acknowledge, understand, and embrace the diversity within our community and treat others in a spirit of dignity, respect, compassion, honesty, openness and inclusiveness.

Salary is commensurate with education and experience.

We would like to thank everyone in advance for applying, as only those selected for an interview will be contacted. Reply in confidence sending your resume and cover letter quoting posting Y0-025.
