

ACADEMIC ADVISING

So you want to study CHIROPRACTICS

Depending on the program, students may complete up to two years worth of university level coursework at Camosun. Students are to confirm with their destination institution that the below academic requirements & non-academic preparations are current. Students should also confirm deadlines and GPA requirements for admission with their destination institution. Because admission to these programs is competitive, students should have a backup plan that may include an alternative degree.

Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College: Doctor of Chiropractic

www.cmcc.ca

Academic Requirements

- Minimum of 90 credits (3 years) of undergraduate studies at a recognized post secondary institution
- Check directly with this institution for required or recommended course work
- Recommend University level course work in Kinesiology, Biology, Psychology, Human Anatomy, Physiology, Chemistry

Non-Academic Preparation

- The candidate's motivation, problem solving ability, self directed learning experience, past chiropractic experience, personal qualities, leadership qualities, and interest in wellness and health promotion are considered.

For Your Information:

- Universite de Quebec a Trois Rivieres also offers chiropractic training. Students entering must be fluent in both English and French: www.uqtr.ca
- The Canadian Chiropractic Association has links to general information on the profession at www.ccachiro.org