Camosun College is involved in a number of educational projects providing flexible, responsive programs and services on a contract basis to clients in business, industry, government and community agencies. Our Contract Training services include training needs assessment, course development, administration, delivery of training programs and program evaluation.

Continuing Education and Contract Training (CE & CT) is the department within the College that manages external delivery of training and educational services regionally and nationally. The department employs professional project managers, all of whom are faculty members and experienced adult educators, to link our clients with the College's human and institutional resources. Customized programs can be provided on-campus or on-site at the workplace.

We represent decades of combined experience providing contract training services. The project management and educational expertise in the CE & CT department ensures the success of programs through our ongoing involvement in the design, maintenance and implementation of each project.
