School Statement

The School of Health & Human Services is dedicated to preparing learners to work effectively as caring professionals on health care teams and in human service agencies. We offer a broad range of certificate and diploma level programs, a Baccalaureate of Science in Nursing, a post-degree in Interprofessional Mental Health and Addictions, and continuing education courses and programs.

Our full- and part-time programs are designed to ensure that learners master the theory and skills necessary for caring, safe and effective practice. A variety of clinics and agencies become the "living laboratories" where supervised practice encourages learners to develop the values and competencies required for health and human service positions.

We are assisted by program advisory committees to maintain the high standards necessary for accreditation by licensing agencies, and to promote employment of graduates. Provision is also made for graduates to transfer with advanced standing into related health and human service programs or to pursue further education at the university level.

We use principles of adult education, see ourselves as partners in the learning process, evaluate performance against well-defined learning outcomes and incorporate appropriate educational technology into all courses and programs. We promote the full personal and professional development of each learner for the mutual benefit of the individual and the society in which we live. In the School of Health & Human Services we are: Learning for Practice, Learning for Change.

Standards of Academic Progress

The faculty, staff and administration in the School of Health & Human Services are committed to developing environments which foster learner success. Within these environments, learners will make informed choices about program content, expectations, linkages to other institutions and career opportunities.

Every program within the school has specific requirements concerning attendance and performance standards. These requirements will be described in a student handbook/course outline which is available to students in the first week of the semester. The School of Health & Human Services monitors course and program admission requirements and prerequisites to ensure that entry requirements are realistic and supportive of successful student outcomes. During the program, instructors are readily available to consult with students directly regarding the educational requirements of the course and/or program. Ultimately, the student is responsible for his/her learning.

The Camosun College Academic Progress Policy applies to all students. Refer to camosun.ca/policies.

Interprofessional Mental Health and Addictions

The Interprofessional Mental Health and Addictions (IMHA) program prepares people with relevant baccalaureate degrees (e.g. Child and Youth Care, Education, Nursing, Occupational Therapy and Social Work) to engage in the assessment, planning, treatment and evaluation of older teens and adults experiencing acute, persistent, and/or concurrent mental health and addiction challenges. IMHA graduates will work in acute, tertiary, and community settings - most often as members or leaders of interprofessional teams.

The program presents the specialized knowledge and expertise necessary to understand and address the complex needs and concerns of the older teen and adult living with mental health, addiction, and/or concurrent diagnosis challenges. The theory and skills will be in more depth and breadth than mental health content presented in baccalaureate level programs, to prepare participants for leadership roles.

Working with a holistic client focus and from a health promotion perspective, students will engage with the individual, the family, other team members, and the community to develop a partnered interprofessional approach focused on enhancing the client's mental health and well being. Courses will include the content needed to understand the client, the challenges faced, the many contexts of the individual's experience, and the many approaches to care. Class time will be spent with learners and teachers exploring and applying content, and critically thinking about choices made to advance evidence-based practice. Learning activities will include case studies, role play, faculty and peer feedback sessions, as well as guest speakers. The focus will be the application of advanced knowledge and skills.

This 30-credit program comprises face-to-face components plus web-based and practicum components and is offered part-time over 12 months.

Career and Vocational Programs

Certified Dental Assistant

The fully accredited Camosun College Certified Dental Assistant program provides learners with opportunities to develop the knowledge, skills, and values necessary for success with the National Dental Assistant Examination Board (NDAEB) and for subsequent entry to the profession of dentistry as a Certified Dental Assistant (CDA).

CDA's are health professionals who make unique contributions to the dental team. They perform selective skills, support clients of all ages and needs throughout dental procedures, and promote effective oral health practices in private and community environments. Following graduation, CDA's may choose to pursue further experience and education in order to perform specialized skills in prosthodontic and orthodontic procedures, serve clients as dental treatment coordinators, practice the dual role of CDA-Receptionist and serve the community in public dental health settings.

In preparation for a career as a CDA, learners will acquire comprehensive knowledge related to CDA practice and will be expected to demonstrate employment qualities such as self-awareness, competence, effective communication and professional integrity. Learners have opportunities to develop effective strategies for: team work, dental career development, adapting to change within the dental profession, and continuing their education.

Successful completion of the NDAEB examination is required prior to practicing as a registered and licensed CDA in British Columbia. Once qualified, CDA's will work interdependently within their scope of practice as members of a dental health team and with the supervision and/or direction of a dentist.

For the same reason, those with back, arm or neck problems or significant health challenges are advised to consult with the Program Chair.

6. Facial and oral body piercing are discouraged due to the potential risk of infection.

Community, Family and Child Studies

Community, Family and Child Studies (CFCS) is a dynamic, professional two-year program that is based on contemporary research and grounded in principles of social justice (including freedom, equity, fairness and respectful treatment). Teachers create a co-operative learning community where all members contribute and learn from one another.

The diploma prepares students to promote, support and strengthen the well-being of individuals and families and to work as caring, ethical professionals who can adapt to meet current and emergent community needs.

As students progress through integrated courses and practica they will become familiar with a variety of community services and gain experience supporting individuals and/or families. Students will develop their own leadership style and participate in community development, planning and advocacy activities.

There are many employment opportunities for graduates of the CFCS program. Graduates may work independently and/or as a member of an interdisciplinary team, and will be accountable to individuals or community organizations. Community and team environments could include family support services, schools and after school programs, family resource centres, life skills and recreation programs, youth services, women's services, employment training programs, community outreach, foster care and group homes.

Flexible learning opportunities include full-time and part-time studies offered through a combination of day and some evening courses.

Graduates of the Diploma in Community, Family and Child Studies program can apply for transfer credit towards university degree programs, including 60 credits for Child and Youth Care at the University of Victoria, University of the Fraser Valley, or Vancouver Island University. Students must obtain an overall GPA of "B" or higher and complete all courses with a letter grade of "C+" or higher for this option. Check the advising centre at the university of choice for transfer details.

Certificate graduates from a Human Services program (e.g. CSEA, ECCE and IFS) can apply for transfer credit into Year 2 of the diploma (certificate graduates can complete the program part-time over two years and will be required to take some Year 1 courses. See Program Leader for details).

Early Childhood Care and Education

The Early Childhood Care and Education program is designed to provide opportunities for developing the knowledge, skills and attitudes necessary to work with young children of varying abilities from birth to school entry.

In the ECCE program students progress through an interrelated series of courses and practice designed to integrate theoretical learning with practical experience. The program incorporates the knowledge and competencies historically foundational to the field, as well as those identified by contemporary research.

There are many employment opportunities for graduates of the Early Childhood program. Graduates are employed in licensed preschools and child day care centres, family child care homes, recreation centres, drop-in parent/child programs, out of school care programs and other child minding services. Graduates who take further education may find careers as licensing officers or consultants. There is an ever increasing demand for well qualified early childhood educators. As public awareness of the importance of the early years grows, early childhood educators are beginning to receive the professional recognition and appropriate remuneration for the role they play in the care and education of young children.

One Program, Two Credentials

The ECCE program is a two-year diploma program, with a certificate credential awarded after first year. While many students will continue with their second-year courses as full-time students, others may choose to begin their ECE career and combine work and part-time studies, or return to Camosun at a later date to complete their diploma.

Graduates of the Certificate in Early Childhood Care and Education may choose to complete a Diploma in Early Childhood Care and Education with either an Infant/Toddler or Special Needs Specialization.

Completion of the certificate also provides transfer credit towards the Diploma in Community, Family and Child Studies. Check with Academic Advising for details.

The Camosun College Baccalaureate of Science in Nursing program is a partner in the Collaboration for Academic Education in Nursing (CAEN) and offers a four-year Baccalaureate Nursing program with the University of Victoria and six other BC colleges and universities as well as Aurora College (Yellowknife).

The purpose of the program is to educate nurses to contribute to the enhancement of health for all Canadians and others in the global community. The program fosters critically reflective, independent, and motivated learners and practitioners with an inquiry approach to lifelong learning in their practice. Within this program, learners are prepared to work with individuals, families, groups, and communities in a variety of settings. The program assists students to develop knowledge, competencies and understanding of their own and others' (individuals, groups, communities, populations) diverse experiences of health and healing. By being cognizant of nurses' professional roles and the evolving health care system, students learn to work as partners with clients and other health care providers. Through their understanding of and participation in the evolving health care system, graduates will be active participants and leaders in influencing and contributing to the promotion of health.

Students entering the program at Camosun College continue directly (after 2 years, 4 months), to the University of Victoria for completion of a Baccalaureate of Science in Nursing, or may transfer to another partner site if space allows. Through engagement in teaching and learning, critical thinking, and critical reflection, the CAEN program provides baccalaureate academic education for nurses.

The credential, the Baccalaureate of Science in Nursing is awarded by the University of Victoria upon successful completion of the four-year program. Successful completion of the Canadian Registered Nurse Exam (CRNE) is required to qualify for registration as a Registered Nurse in British Columbia by the College of Registered Nurses of British Columbia (CRNBC). The CRNE process is external to Camosun College and the University of Victoria. At the completion of their education, graduates will be prepared to meet the professional practice requirements, at the entry level, as identified by the College of Registered Nurses in BC (CRNBC) for nursing education programs in British Columbia. Students will also meet the Canadian Registered Nurse Examination (CRNE) competencies.

The Nursing program provides graduate nurses with the theory and skills needed to meet the changing health care needs of our society. Emphasis will be placed upon health assessment of individuals, families, communities and populations across the lifespan, and situated in practical experiences as the foundation of nursing theory. Students will be directly involved with clients in local hospitals and community agencies. This will include some evening and weekend hours.

Registered Nurses are able to seek employment in a variety of work settings: acute care hospitals, long-term care facilities, clinics and community health agencies. Following additional experience and/or education, RN's may qualify to work in specialized areas.

The Camosun College Nursing department is committed to open, transparent processes of evaluation. This means that students are encouraged to be proactive in approaching their instructors about past progress and challenges as each new course starts. Faculty work as a team to maximize learning opportunities and enhance the quality of instruction. Evaluative feedback about current and past student progress is shared by course instructors with other faculty in the Nursing department as needed in order to promote student success.
