

SCHOOL OF ARTS & SCIENCE

FRED HEMUS & MARJORIE PETERS AWARD IN CREATIVE WRITING

CRITERIA FOR ELIGIBILITY

Students must apply for this award.

Marjorie Peters was the mother of Mr. Pierre Long. Several years ago Mr. Long established an endowment fund in memory of his mother's lifelong interest in education and creative writing.

To be eligible to apply for the Fred Hemus and Marjorie Peters Award in Creative Writing, students must

- be a student at Camosun College.
- demonstrate originality and skill through the submission of one of the following:
 - ◆ a short story
 - ◆ a play
 - ◆ a long poem (14 lines minimum)
 - ◆ several short poems
- submit a clear, typed and double-spaced document, and include
 - ◆ the instructor's original class assignment
 - ◆ a one- or two-page informal essay describing the materials used
 - ◆ a description of the process or method used
 - ◆ a statement of what was learned by completing the creative assignment
- complete and submit an application form available from the Arts & Science office (F104A).

Value: Varies annually

Donor: English Department

Application deadline: May 15