VICTORIA SHAKESPEARE SOCIETY AWARD

CRITERIA FOR ELIGIBILITY

Students must apply for this award.

The Victoria Shakespeare Society Award acknowledges academic achievement and is awarded to a student who has written an outstanding essay on a Shakespearean topic for a Camosun College course.

To be eligible to apply for the Victoria Shakespeare Society Award, students must

- submit an essay on an area of Shakespearean studies. The submission must be an essay written for a Camosun College course completed in the current academic year. The essay may be slightly revised in response to an instructor's suggestions. Criteria used in the decision include the quality of the academic challenge, originality of the student's insights, and excellence in writing.
- submit a clean, typed document with a separate title page.
- complete and submit an application form available from the Arts & Science office (F104A).
