

Hospital Unit Clerk Program

(Nursing Unit Assistant)

September 2018 – May 2019

The Program

The Hospital Unit Clerk Certificate Program is a 335 hour part-time program that prepares graduates for the challenging and rewarding career of looking after the administrative and clerical requirements of a hospital unit.

Skilled Unit Clerks (also known as Nursing Unit Assistants) who bring an excellent work ethic, attention to detail, compassion for people and a positive attitude to their jobs are needed in our health care system! These positions offer a competitive union wage (currently $21.82 hour + 12.2% for casual work= $24.48), flexible hours, a fast-paced interactive environment, and an interesting variety of duties.

The program is offered once a year on a part-time basis starting each September and finishing in May. Classes are held at the Interurban Campus.

Classroom: 10 hours/week from mid-September to April (225 hours)

Mondays 6:30-9pm • Thursdays 6:30-9pm • Saturdays 9am-2:30pm

Homework: Approximately 2-6 hours per week

Hospital Practicum Hours: During April and May (110 hrs)
