School of Arts & Science

First Time Offered –

Brand New Psychology Courses starting Winter 2011

PSYC 275 – Music Psychology

Have you ever wondered how music affects our emotions and memory? Healing and wellness? What goes on in your brain while listening/playing music? How does it shape our behaviours and actions and form part of our culture? Sound interesting?

Contact Instructor Randal Tonks: tonks@camosun.bc.ca to find out more.
Prerequisite(s): PSYC 110, or PSYC 130; or MUS 121

PSYC 276 – Positive Psychology

Does thinking positively really work? Does money buy happiness? What makes a career both meaningful and enjoyable? What can I do to increase my life satisfaction? This course will provide an opportunity to try various interventions designed to improve well-being.

Contact Instructor Marty Donatelli: donatellim@camosun.bc.ca to find out more.
Prerequisite(s): PSYC 110; and PSYC 130, or PSYC 150, or PSYC 154, or PSYC 164
