2. Course Description

This one semester course offers the student information and practical assistance relating to health maintenance and promotion. Health/wellness is viewed as an interaction between physical, emotional, social, mental, spiritual and environmental dimensions, with choices in one dimension affecting all the others.

Please note: This outline will not be kept indefinitely. It is recommended students keep this outline for their records, especially to assist in transfer credit to post-secondary institutions.

3. Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, you will be able to:

1. Demonstrate an awareness of all dimensions of health as they affect, and are affected by, lifestyle choices.
2. Identify and assess factors that influence health, based on a sound body of valid and current information.
3. Use an effective planning process to develop an action plan to change behaviour.
4. Demonstrate analytical and critical thinking through implementation of a health-related lifestyle change.

8. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College Calendar, Student Services or the College web site at <http://www.camosun.bc.ca>

CAMOSUN LIBRARY SUPPORT

When you need reliable books, articles and websites for essays and research projects, ask a librarian to help you find suitable items. You can go to the Information Desk in the library, or use the online service called AskAway. There is a link to AskAway, as well as the catalogue and library hours, on the library's homepage at www.camosun.ca/library.

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, Registration, and on the College web site in the Policy Section.
